

Hospitality Management Vision Statement

The Hospitality Management Program aspires to strengthen the hospitality industry in our region through employer partnerships and professional development for current practitioners.

Hospitality Management Mission Statement

The Hospitality Management Program of Atlantic Cape Community College is committed to providing a quality education, incorporating theory and practice, to prepare students for successful careers in the hospitality and tourism industry, and/or transfer to four-year institutions. Additionally, our mission is to connect our students with industry stakeholders through community events.

Hospitality classes are scheduled traditionally, for those students most comfortable in a classroom learning environment, and Online, for those students who are self-disciplined and appreciate the flexibility that distance education offers. Students with transfer credits should contact the Admissions Office.
