

ATLANTIC CAPE COMMUNITY COLLEGE
TUITION AND FEE DESCRIPTION
Updated 4/2/2026

TUITION

Tuition is paid by all students according to the type of courses, the student's residency and total credits for which they enroll in a semester. Tuition is used to support the instructional and academic support costs of the college.

GENERAL FEE

The general fee is a required fee for all full and part-time students. Students pay according to the total number of credits for which they enroll in a semester. This fee is used to support processing a student's registration, including admissions, financial aid, testing, enrollment, advising, and bursar services.

ACTIVITY FEE

This is a required fee for all full and part-time students. Students pay according to the total number of credits for which they enroll in a semester. This fee funds student government, clubs, and activities.

FACILITIES FEE

This is a required fee for all full and part-time students. Students pay according to the total number of credits for which they enroll in a semester. This fee supports deferred maintenance and renewal and replacement of facilities on all campuses.

CAMPUS SAFETY FEE

This is a required fee for all full and part-time students for each semester for which they enroll. This fee helps offset the costs of measures that protect the safety of the college community.

REGISTRATION FEE

This is a required fee for all full and part-time students for each semester for which they enroll. This fee helps offset the annual costs of the college's Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP) system.

ONLINE COURSE FEE

This is a course fee charged to online and remote course sections. In addition to defraying the costs of instructional technology and instructional software, this fee is used towards building and improving our technology infrastructure.

HONOR LOCK FEE

This is a required fee for all students per academic year. This fee covers the annual cost associated with proctoring services.

BOOKPASS TEXTBOOK ACCESS FEE

Effective Fall 2026, this per credit fee provides students access to their required textbook materials (digital and/or print) as part of the Atlantic Cape BookPass program. Students are automatically enrolled in the BookPass program upon registration. There is an Opt-Out option. For more information about the Atlantic Cape BookPass program, including how to Opt-Out, please visit atlanticcape.edu/bookpass. (Note: Nursing courses (including Radiology) and high school dual courses are excluded from the program.)
